

VILLA NOVA

THE HUARI STORY

Uncomplicated and rustic luxury with a dose of free-spiritedness

The Huari collection embraces a blend of African, native Central and South American influences to create a well-travelled interior. Painterly marks and tribal patterns that typically adorned ceramics and decorative arts have been transformed into modern prints and weaves. Earthy tones of russet, ochre and charcoal pay homage to the tribal influence.

HUARI

Prints, Weaves and Embroideries

The Huari collection is awash with geometric shapes with hand painted and naive sensibilities. Simple and captivating weaves with rustic appeal reflect a strong tribal influence, adding to the hand crafted aesthetic of the designs.
